

Hello,

Here are the final results from the Chowder Cup Race on Sunday. It was a nice day with a great wind, and those long reaches made the race even more enjoyable. A couple of photos are attached. We haven't scheduled a race day for July yet, and I'm open to suggestions. July 4th weekend is probably busy for everyone, and the Crocker race is on the 15th, so how does the 8th sound?

Also, don't forget Jody's Thursday Night Racing, starting at Lynn Harbor R "2" at 6:30 pm.
Kevin
